

The Farmington Times.
PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY.
BY THEO. D. FISHER
AT ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

For subscribers within the county, and $1.50 per year to subscribers living outside the county.

VOLUME XXIX.

FARMINGTON, ST. FRANCOIS CO., MO., THURSDAY, JULY 3, 1902.

NUMBER 27.

A WEEK'S HISTORY

The Important Happenings of a Week Briefly Told.

IN ALL PARTS OF THE UNION

All the Latest News of Interest from Washington, From the East, the West and the South.

THE LATEST FOREIGN DISPATCHES

FIFTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS.

Bills were passed in the United States senate on the 24th creating a national forest preserve in the southern Appalachian mountain side for the suppression of game robbery. In the house the time was devoted to debate upon the Philippine bill, general discussion being brought to an end at the evening session.

The conference report on the country civil and army appropriation bills were agreed to in the United States senate on the 25th and an bill was passed appropriating $2,000,000 for the erection of a building for the accommodations of the department of agriculture. The committee's state bill was put over until the next session. In the house the Philippine civil government was thrown open to amendment. Slow progress was made, only 15 of the 30 pages of the bill being completed.

The conference report on the isthmic canal bill was agreed to in the United States senate on the 27th and the general deficiency bill was passed, which incloses $12,000 for the payment of the expenses of the last illness and death of President McKinley, including pay of the physicians. In the house the Philippine civil government bill was passed by a vote of 141 to 97, and the conference report on the Isthmian canal bill was adopted by a vote of 252 to 8.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Conferees on the canal bill in session agreed to report in favor of the sponsor bill, which provides for the Panama route.

President Roosevelt has taken the oath as commissioner general of immigration to succeed T. V. Poston.

Agreement has been made between representatives of the senate and house for adjournment of congress on July 2.

A reciprocity treaty for Cuba has been prepared in Washington and will be held in readiness for any emergency that may arise.

At Washington Senator Petrie, of Alabama, and his wife celebrated the fifty-eighth anniversary of their marriage.

Before the senate Philippine committee Admiral Bates said that Manila was surrendered by the Spanish governor when the fleet was sunk, and said he did not recognize the Aguinaldo government or salute the Philippine flag.

THE EAST.

The president was given the degree of LL.D. at Harvard, in a speech at the annual banquet to defend Senator Root, Major Gen. Wood and Judge Taft, and declared they worked for the good of the people without hope of reward.

The Pennsylvania democrats have nominated Robert E. Patterson, of Philadelphia, for governor.

At New Haven, Prof. Charles Davis was honored for the murder of his wife last December.

In the United States railroad construction for the first six months of 1902 will reach 2,314 miles, 1901 record broken by 280 miles, total mileage now over 360,000.

At New London, Conn., the Yale crew defeated Harvard by four lengths in the varsity race and Harvard won the four-oared race by 2½ lengths.

Five men were killed in a mine accident near Dover, N. J.

WISCONSIN AND SOUTH.

Nebraska democrats have nominated Constantine M. Smyth for governor and the popularists have nominated M. T. Harrington.

Planes in East Dallas, Tex., destroyed 26 residences covering an area of three blocks.

Hessie Carlson, Mary Bystrom and William Beebe were drowned near Ludington, Mich., by the upsetting of a boat.

The Minnesota democrats have nominated a state ticket headed by L. A. Rosing, of Cannon Falls, for governor.

In Salt Lake City Edward Hendey, Jr., a bricklayer, shot and killed his divorced wife and then committed suicide.

In north central Indiana a storm killed two persons, injured 30, and did property damage estimated at $2,000,000.

Five wiped out Mercur, the second largest mining town in Utah.

The Nebraska democrats and popularists conventions united on W. H. Thompson, a democrat, for governor.

The South Dakota democrats and popularists fused and nominated John F. Martin (dem.) for governor.

The country from Pierre, S. D., to Lemars, Ia., a distance of 186 miles, was swept by a storm, causing a loss of $300,000 to property and one person was killed.

Missouri republicans nominated a state ticket headed by J. U. White for superintendent of public instruction and endorsed President Roosevelt for reelection in 1904.

Michigan republicans in convention at Detroit renominated Aaron T. Bliss for governor and adopted a platform endorsing the state and national administrations.

Democrats have nominated Jonas Olson for congress in the Fifteenth Illinois district, and Wilbur B. Blane in the Nineteenth.

Leona Geiger and Alonso Wells, both aged nine, were struck by a train and fatally injured near Cedar Rapids, Ia.

After a session of one year the Virginia constitutional convention has adjourned sine die.

The Alabama republicans split, one faction nominating H. H. Myers for governor, and the other Charles D. Gresham.

J. P. Hopkins of Chicago has been elected chairman of the Illinois state democratic committee.

The supreme court of Ohio has rendered a decision invalidating special charters granted by cities.

In the vicinity of Lancaster, Ky., a cyclone did great damage, a dozen farmhouses being blown to pieces and crops destroyed.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

The king of Great Britain is in a critical condition as the result of an operation for appendicitis, and the coronation has been indefinitely postponed.

On July 1 Philippines civil government will be established in Mindoro and Paragua Islands and Batangas.

On Cuba a school census shows a total of 20,525 children of all ages, with 20 per cent. white and 80 per cent. male.

At Puebla, Spain, lightning struck a church during a funeral service, killing 23 people and injuring many others.

In Italy the situation is more serious and the authorities are powerless, in extensive surface of forest.

In China a rebellion is still continuing, with its center in Manchuria. The recent agreement with Russia.

In London the Robin Hood Tam Sharkey for a purse of $100,000, fight lasting 11 rounds.

The latest bulletin regarding the king of England were encouraging. He had rested well, and was able to take nourishment.

R. S. McCormick presented Emperor Pilsbury through his credentials as United States ambassador to Austria.

LATER NEWS.

In the senate, on the 27th, the Cuban reciprocity bill was sharply opposed by Mr. Teller (Rep.) and Mr. Platt (Conn.). The conference report on the District of Columbia appropriation bill was agreed to, thus passing the measure. A few minor bills were passed...In the house the contested election case, T. Burton vs. Butler, from the Twelfth Missouri district, was taken up. The report of the majority of the committee found that the election was so tainted with fraud as to make it invalid, and recommended that the seat be declared vacant.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The great strike of the anthracite coal miners has entered on its eighth week. Excepting President Mitchell's offer to arbitrate there has been no proposition advanced by either of the parties to the controversy since the strike began, and the prediction that the struggle will be one to a finish still holds good.

The Portuguese troops have gained a decisive victory over the rebels in the upper Zambezi region of Portuguese East Africa. The rebellious chiefs were captured and disarmed and their heads were saluted and carried to the capital of the colony.

Investigations by the grand jury into municipal matters in Milwaukee, Mich., indicate a very energetic effort to expose the corruption of the city. The grand jury, after a week's investigation, found the city practically deserted, the bank holding proclaimed for the day paralyzed business. The masses, apparently satisfied with their recent wanderings in the streets Thursday, either cleared out to the country, sought by the perfect weather, or else stayed at home. Certainly the main thoroughfares could not have been more deserted on any Sunday in the year. The big hotels, however, were each an oasis of activity amid the otherwise general stagnation.

Mrs. Mollie Swanson, of Moline, Ill., charged with holding her five-week-old babe over a lamp until it was fatally burned. She prevented her husband from protecting it. She was suffering from delirium tremens at the time.

MINOR NEWS ITEMS.

The insurance of the lives of children is forbidden in Montreal.

Senator Hanna gave $30,000 to Harry Parsons, who married his daughter Mabel.

In a suit filed at Marquette, Mich., it is alleged that one dog killed $800 worth of sheep.

A French doctor inoculated himself with contagious cow-milk in order to disprove Prof. Koch's theory.

John D. Rockefeller offered Smith college, Northampton, Mass., $100,000 on condition that a like sum be subscribed.

About 1,500 men and boys, mounted, and most of them heavily armed, crossed the line of the ceded Fort Hall reservation in Idaho.

Henry Reichen, disbursing officer of the department of justice in Washington, has been arrested on the charge of misappropriating $7,000 of government funds.

There was sent out from California this year 26,000 carloads of oranges and lemons, 700 cars of English walnuts, 400 cars of almonds and 1,200 of dried apricots.

Except in a small portion of northeast Texas, the destruction of the state's corn crop from drought is complete. Only rains in the near future can save the cotton crop.

Col. H. H. Williams, of Springfield, O., former post office inspector in Cuba, who said that Cuba will soon apply for annexation, as such action is desired by a majority of the people.

The congregation of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, unanimously adopted a pledge to contribute any part of $2,000,000 that may be necessary to build an immense auditorium at Boston.

Mr. Galling, who invented the gun known by his name, has invented a trap operated by gasoline which will do the work of 50 men and eight horses at an expense of a little more than a dollar a day.

Mrs. Urquhart Lee, of Chicago, has the distinction of being the only woman in the country who teaches parliamentarian law. She is the new appointee to the chair of parliamentary law in the University of California.

THE KING OUT OF DANGER.

So Declares Lord Lister, One of the Staff of Surgeons Attending King Edward.

CAUSE FOR PROFOUND GRATIFICATION.

What Was to Have Been Procession Day Found London Practically Desolated, the Fine Weather Having Sent the Crowds to Out-of-Town Resorts.

London, June 27, 2:37 p. m.—It is stated that after the issue of Friday morning's bulletin Lord Marcus Beresford asked Lord Lister how the king was progressing and that Lord Lister replied:

"His majesty is practically out of danger."

GRATIFYING CONFIRMATION.

Dispatches Telling of the King's Good Progress Confirmed.

London, June 27.—It is the best yet, was the popular comment with which the bulletins posted at Buckingham palace at 11 o'clock tonight was received. The two men had had several quarrels and Mrs. Beresford, and Mr. and Mrs. Robertson, were engaged in mining for the past 20 years.

LONDON SHOUTS HIS TRUMPET.

Dr. Louis Zorn, a retired dentist, who owns much property in Kansas City, shot and mortally wounded Alfredo, son of Archduke Joseph, his fifth child, at the dining-table. Dr. Zorn, who is a son of the emperor, was a man of great energy, ambition and popularity, and was well known to the king.

London, June 27, 2:37 p. m.—It is the opinion of the medical authorities that the king will recover.

London, June 27.—The king's condition is now quite stable.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the 28th, reports the king's condition as "all respects satisfactory."

The prince and princess of Wales dined at Buckingham palace bound in company with several foreign royal persons. All the diners returned early to their homes.

The community among prominent physicians expressing their opinions on the quite remarkable all the profession pronounced the treatment distinctly favorable and hopeful; the doctors regard the danger of peritonitis as now almost past, and believe his majesty's recovery to be entirely probable.

The latest bulletin issued on the